Welcome to DP World Limassol Cruise Port

Situated on the southern coast of Cyprus, DP World Limassol Port is the island's principal cruise destination, and is considered to be one of the largest and busiest ports in the Mediterranean region.

DP World Limassol was awarded a 25-year concession to exclusively operate the multi-purpose and cruise terminal in Limassol, commencing February 2017. P&O Maritime, a DP World subsidiary, was also awarded an exclusive 15-year concession to provide the full range of maritime services in the Port of Limassol.

The brand new 7,000 sqm Passenger Terminal commenced operations in July 2017, offering cruise lines and passengers a wealth of services to accommodate all their needs accompanied by the high standards and efficiency of DPWL.

DPWL offers a stable, secure, friendly and responsive environment for transit and home port cruising, with numerous destinations in the eastern Mediterranean being just an overnight sailing.

As in all locations where DP World operates, DP World Limassol is a part of the local community and has a growing workforce team. DP World Limassol aims to be a catalyst for access to national and international destinations and markets, which will be fundamental to the region's economic vitality.

Location
